Welcome to 46 North Liberty Drive, where modern functionality meets old world charm. Just 30 minutes from NYC , located in Historic Stony Point, just minutes from the waterfront this home has been completely remodeled. The current owners transformed the gally kitchen into a gorgeous eat in kitchen with stainless steel appliances, but still keeping the original walk-in pantry with original cabinets. The kitchen overlooks the new addition to the house, the great room. This room is surrounded by windows which look out into the fully fenced in yard, perfect for those family gatherings. With over 3500 square feet of living space, including a downstairs game room area you need to see this home in person to appreciate everything that has been done to update it - while keeping the original woodwork and flooring.
