Charming Tudor with Lake Views in Prime Location – Endless Potential Awaits! Step into timeless elegance and unlock the potential of this spacious Tudor-style home, perfectly perched to capture stunning lake views in one of the area's most desirable neighborhoods. Brimming with character, this classic gem offers the perfect canvas for your vision—whether you're looking to restore its original charm or create something entirely new. Inside, you'll find generous living spaces, and distinctive architectural details. With ample square footage, there's plenty of room to dream big. Large windows flood the home with natural light, and multiple vantage points offer picturesque views of the lake. While the home does need some work, its unbeatable location puts you just minutes from restaurants, shops and the train to Grand Central Station—truly the best of both convenience and tranquility. Owners have the option to join the Lakenridge Club that covers the lake and recreation area. Home is below market and needs work, sold as is.
