Year Built:	1962

Spectacular WATERFRONT, newly re-built and reimagined elevated farmhouse at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in Rye's sought-after Greenhaven neighborhood. The setting is nearly one acre of private grounds overlooking the Long Island Sound. This four-bedroom, 4.5-bath Colonial combines timeless architecture with sophisticated European design. A grand double-height entry foyer with a dramatic staircase sets the tone, leading into expansive living spaces where clean lines, natural light, and top-tier materials define every room. The living room features corner sliding doors that frame tranquil views of Long Island Sound, while the sleek, German-designed kitchen—complete with Gaggenau appliances, a fireplace sitting area, and seamless access to the deck—offers a stunning backdrop for everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs, all four spacious bedrooms include en-suite baths, including a breathtaking primary suite with a walk-in closet, custom built-ins, and a private deck overlooking the water. High-end finishes throughout include white oak parquet floors, marble tile, Dornbracht and Grohe fixtures, Duravit vanities, and exquisite custom millwork. A beautifully designed powder room, formal dining room, new laundry room, and oversized mudroom complete the main level. Beyond aesthetics, this home offers unparalleled comfort and efficiency: radiant heat, four-zone HVAC, full sheep wool insulation, a new standing seam metal roof, upgraded electrical panel, high-speed fiber internet, a full-house water filtration system, and Ring security. The outdoor experience is equally refined, with a newly built covered terrace and peaceful wooded grounds that roll gently toward the shoreline. This extraordinary home is now being offered for rent—a rare opportunity to enjoy high-end design, privacy, and water views in one of Rye's most desirable locations.
