A/O 05/20 Welcome to 16 Quincy Lane, a charming 4-bedroom, 2.5-bath Colonial nestled in the sought-after Rosedale neighborhood of White Plains. Set on a peaceful, no-through-traffic street, this home offers over 2,800 square feet of living space with timeless architecture and exceptional potential. Step into a classic Colonial layout with 2 spacious living rooms, one of which opens directly onto a deck—ideal for entertaining or relaxing while overlooking the expansive backyard. The dining room, adjacent to the kitchen, is large enough for a 10-12 person dinner party. The large and bright, eat-in kitchen has an ideal layout with 4 sides of cabinets, countertops and appliances. Upstairs you will find the sizable primary bedroom featuring a sitting area, walk in closet and en-suite bathroom. Down the hall you'll find 3 more large bedrooms and another full bathroom. An additional powder room is located on the first floor for additional convenience. Key features include a plethora of double pane windows throughout, a brand new central air conditioning system, a huge first-floor laundry room with room for a desk, extra fridge and/or extra storage and a 2-car garage offering convenience and even more storage. The heart of the home is ready for a fresh vision with a renovation opportunity, allowing you to reimagine the interiors to your personal style. The unfinished basement features high ceilings, providing an easy path to add additional finished living space. Located just 5–10 minutes from downtown White Plains, this home enjoys close proximity to over 140 shops and restaurants, including luxury boutiques at The Westchester Mall and vibrant eateries along Mamaroneck Avenue. Enjoy cultural events at the White Plains Performing Arts Center, weekly farmers markets, and community celebrations like JazzFest. Outdoor lovers will appreciate easy access to Turnure and Delfino Parks, the Bronx River Pathway, and nearby historic sites including the Jacob Purdy House. Commuters benefit from a quick 35-minute express ride to NYC via the White Plains train station, along with swift access to major highways and just a 15-minute drive to Westchester Airport. Don't miss this rare opportunity to make your mark in one of White Plains' most desirable neighborhoods. 16 Quincy Lane is a home with an excellent layout, endless potential, and a location that truly has it all.
