Set on a quiet, tree-lined street in the heart of Stony Point, this classic colonial feels like the opening scene of a feel-good film. With 4 bedrooms, 2.5 baths, and over 2,000 square feet of living space, this home is built for the moments that matter, and the ones you didn't know you needed. Step inside and let the story unfold. Hardwood floors carry you through bright, welcoming rooms - from a comfortable living room to a formal dining space and into a cheerful kitchen that flows into an expansive screened-in porch. It's the kind of space where summer evenings stretch out with good food, laughter, and the sound of crickets in the background. Out back, a large in-ground pool sets the stage for every summer to come. Surrounded by trees and fencing, it offers a peaceful retreat while still feeling part of the neighborhood. There's room to host, room to unwind, and plenty of open sky overhead. Upstairs, four spacious bedrooms await. The primary suite includes its own bath and ample closet space, while the other bedrooms give you flexibility for guests, family, or a home office. Downstairs, you'll find a versatile finished basement perfect for a playroom, gym, media lounge, or creative space. Storage, laundry, and mechanicals are all neatly tucked away, with plenty of room to grow. Located minutes from golf, marinas, the Hudson River, and the historic charm of Stony Point, this home offers more than just square footage...it offers a lifestyle. Welcome to 35 Capt Faldermeyer Drive. Your next chapter starts here.
