Square Footage:	2,814
Year Built:	1964

Enjoy the natural beauty and partial water views of the Long Island Sound in this wonderful Colonial home located on a quiet cul-de-sac in the desirable Greenhaven neighborhood of Rye. This alluring property boasts light, bright spacious rooms, lovely hardwood floors, renovated kitchen & baths, front sitting porch, and a sprawling, private back yard with mature plantings and chic patio, ideal for play, entertaining, and al fresco dining. Inside you will find a wonderful flow and tons of flexibility with four, bright bedrooms, including a primary suite on the 2nd floor, and an additional bedroom/office on the first floor. The Landlord is in the process of installing a brand-new Mitsubishi Concealed Ceiling HVAC System on the second floor, which will permit each bedroom to have an independent thermostat for heat and A/C. The full basement was recently renovated and includes a large recreation space, spare room, full bath, laundry room, and utilities. As an added plus, residents in this neighborhood enjoy "Thursday Beach Nights", where neighbors walk and gather at the shore to mingle, play, and snack at visiting food trucks. The Greenhaven enclave is also a short drive to the vibrant restaurants, shops, and transportation in both Rye and Mamaroneck. Come have it all!
