Great cash-flowing two-family home in the heart of Suffern, recently renovated and fully occupied with a strong monthly income of $6,700. Both tenants are on lease through April 2026, offering solid, long-term rental stability in a highly desirable neighborhood. The main floor features a spacious one-bedroom apartment with a large kitchen, bright living room, and access to a full unfinished basement. The second floor offers a comfortable two-bedroom layout along with a finished attic that provides additional space. With low taxes and updated interiors, this is a rare opportunity to own a turnkey investment in one of Suffern's most attractive areas.
