The owner is offering private financing to qualified purchasers with good credit and a normal down payment and may also consider a lease-purchase arrangement—an uncommon opportunity for buyers who might not fit conventional lending programs. Set on a gently winding country road in the heart of New City, this stately all-brick and stucco residence offers over 4,300 square feet of versatile living space on a beautifully landscaped acre. A legal two-family home, it's ideal for multi-generational living, extended guests, or flexible use. Inside, the dramatic living room with cathedral ceilings anchors an open-concept layout filled with light and volume. The thoughtfully designed kitchen provides abundant cabinetry and workspace, while the second-floor living area functions perfectly as private guest quarters or an independent suite. Solid construction and classic design details ensure timeless appeal. Additional highlights include a full unfinished basement with expansion potential, an oversized two-car garage plus driveway parking for 10+, and a private, tree-lined yard with in-ground pool—perfect for summer relaxation and entertaining. Conveniently located just minutes from Exit 11 of the Palisades Parkway and close to the shops, dining, and parks of revitalized New City, this property is also served by the Clarkstown North School District. A compelling combination of size, substance, location, and rare financing flexibility for well-qualified buyers makes this a truly standout opportunity in Rockland County.
