Welcome to a timeless Dutch colonial in Highland Park, New Rochelle. Masterfully renovated by designer Carmen Marc Valvo. This charming 1918 home blends historic character with modern luxury. The gracious vestibule welcomes you to a powder room, a living room with a wood-burning fireplace, and an adjoining family room with access to the attached garage. French doors lead from the dining room to a glass-enclosed sun porch. The newly redesigned kitchen offers modern style and functionality, with stairs leading to the expansive backyard. The second level features a luxurious primary bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and a spacious walk-in closet, as well as two additional bedrooms and a hall bathroom. The third floor features a fourth bedroom, a full bathroom, and storage space. The basement includes laundry, utilities, and storage. Enjoy outdoor living in the enormous backyard with a park-like feel.
