Step into a very special Hudson Riverfront home with remarkable history and endless charm. This beautiful property was last owned by Joan Gussow- the pioneering American nutrition educator and early champion of the local and sustainable food movement, and Alan Gussow an American artist and environmentalist. This 4 bedroom 2 bath beautiful home combines timeless character with modern versatility . Inside a light-filled kitchen flows easily into flexible living and dining spaces, ready to adapt to your lifestyle. French doors lead to a generously sized river view deck crowned by a romantic pergola, perfect for outdoor dining or quiet mornings overlooking the Hudson. The property's riverfront garden, lovingly tended by Gussow herself, is both a lush retreat and a piece of living-food history. Steps from the heart of the Village of Piermont the location delivers true riverfront living with 100% walkability. Enjoy the weekly Farmers Market, cafes, galleries, amazing restaurants and the Piermont Pier without ever getting into your car. An attached garage currently used as an art studio offers yet more possibilities . Keep it creative or convert back to a 2 car garage. Whether you are drawn by the historic architecture, the rare Hudson River frontage, or the inspiring provenance of Joan Gussow's sustainable vision this piece of Piermont history invites you to make it your own. Only 24 miles to midtown . South Orangetown award winning schools.
