Upon entering this charming 1918 Colonial you can't help but notice it is brimming with character and potential. Solidly built and lovingly maintained through the years, this classic home features the timeless details that make historic properties so special—original woodwork, wood beam ceilings, hardwood floors, and generous natural light throughout. The spacious layout offers multiple living areas, a formal dining room and living room, and cozy nooks that invite creativity. There is an additional 750 sq. feet of versatile space in the partially finished basement, not included in the total sq. ft. Set on an elevated lot with stonework accents and mature landscaping, it has the perfect backdrop for entertaining. With good bones, a stately presence, sturdy construction and beautiful proportions this home invites you to re-imagine its historic charm into your modern dream home. Set on a quiet street, the location offers privacy while still being super convenient to the shops, restaurants and train in either the town of Pelham or New Rochelle. Interior photos also coming soon!
