New City. Welcome to the highly desirable Lake Lucille community, where quiet streets, natural beauty, and a true neighborhood feel create an exceptional place to call home. This meticulously maintained solid brick ranch with a detached garage offers comfort, character, and enduring quality in prime North New City. Inside, warm natural woodwork, hardwood floors, and a classic brick fireplace with insert create an inviting atmosphere while providing efficient supplemental heat for much of the home. The sun-filled kitchen is bright and functional with generous workspace and flows easily into a formal dining room surrounded by windows, perfect for both everyday living and relaxed entertaining. Lovingly cared for over the years, the home blends timeless features with meaningful updates including an updated main bath, new central air, and a new hot water heater. The FULL basement offers outstanding potential for future customization, whether you envision a media room, fitness area, home office, or guest space, with laundry and storage already in place. Outdoors, a spacious Trex deck invites morning coffee, weekend gatherings, or peaceful evenings at home. As a resident, you will enjoy membership in your own PRIVATE LAKE association with exclusive access to swimming, fishing, and kayaking, while Lake Lucille itself is just a three minute walk away, offering beautiful water views and the perfect backdrop for quiet evening strolls through this serene community. With approximate annual TAXES of just $11,000, this home represents exceptional value in one of New City's most intriguing settings, allowing you to move in comfortably today and update at your own pace while building equity in a location that continues to attract discerning buyers.
