Amazing opportunity to own this charming and versatile two-family home in the heart of Suffern! Ideally situated just moments from Good Samaritan Hospital, the beautiful Suffern Library, and all that vibrant downtown Suffern offers—train station, movie theater, and an excellent selection of restaurants. Long-term, established tenants are already in place, making this a fantastic investment opportunity. Apartment #1 features a comfortable 1-bedroom layout with a kitchen, living room, and full bath. Apartment #2 is a spacious 3-bedroom unit offering a large living room, kitchen, and full bath, plus exclusive use of the full basement—providing abundant storage or potential for additional functionality. The property also includes a 2-car detached garage and a cozy studio space, formerly used for years as a seamstress shop, complete with its own full bath and kitchenette—ideal for a workshop, home office, or creative space. This unique property offers great income potential in a prime location. Don't miss this rare opportunity!
