Must see to appreciate the timeless elegance that abounds in this expanded Tudor set on a private 1/3 of an acre in Bonnie Crest—one of New Rochelle's most coveted areas. Featuring original architectural grandeur paired with thoughtful updates and an exceptional layout, this incredible home sets the stage for a perfect haven with endless potential for a comfortable lifestyle. The spacious home unfolds with exceptional flow. A welcoming entrance hall leads to a generous formal living room with a sun-filled solarium and a large formal dining room adorned with original, exquisite leaded glass windows that are truly artistic masterpieces. The tastefully updated kitchen blends old-world elegance with modern capability, offering custom cabinetry, Viking appliances, a sun-filled breakfast area, mud room and ample room for gathering. The first floor also boasts a home office and powder room. With five spacious bedrooms and 3.5 baths, the layout supports both grand entertaining and comfortable everyday living. The primary bedroom has a deep walk-in closet and large updated bathroom with steam shower and a soaking tub. The lower level provides over 1,000 square feet of versatile possibilities with a separate entrance providing valuable additional living space—perfect for a home office, studio, guest suite, or recreation area—expanding the home's functionality and potential. Throughout the home, each space highlights the Tudor's hallmark proportions: rich millwork, graceful room transitions, abundant natural light, and a sense of balance that makes each space both impressive and welcoming. The lush, manicured grounds provide exceptional privacy and ample space for future enhancements. A sophisticated circular driveway, framed by the original stone wall, complements the property, while a two-car garage and extended driveway accommodating up to 15 vehicles offer unmatched convenience and flexibility. Perfectly positioned in a sought-after area with immediate access to major highways and transportation for an easy NYC commute, this home offers a rare opportunity boasting abundant space, timeless elegance, and the structural integrity to become an extraordinary estate tailored to your vision. Convenient to all local shopping, restaurants, schools, worship, and transportation, and a quick train ride to NYC, this home is the perfect blend of sophisticated and convenient everyday living.
