Perched along the scenic Hudson, this charming log-style home at 1007 Route 9W S immediately captivates with its rustic exterior, expansive front windows, and breathtaking panoramic views of the Hudson River, the Tappan Zee Bridge, and the NYC skyline — a rare blend of natural beauty and urban convenience. Inside, sunlight floods the welcoming foyer and flows throughout the thoughtfully designed layout. The modern galley kitchen sits just off the main living space, with convenient washer/dryer hookups nearby. Two spacious bedrooms and a full bath with a generous sitting area occupy the second floor, while the fully finished walkout basement offers a private third bedroom, spa-inspired full bathroom with steam shower, clawfoot tub, and heated floors — creating your own personal retreat. A half bath on the main level adds everyday ease, along with attic access and crawl space storage. Outside, enjoy an enclosed, heated porch perfect for year-round relaxation while taking in unforgettable river and skyline views. Located in vibrant Nyack with quick access to Manhattan, waterfront parks, dining, arts, and village life — this home delivers comfort, character, and an exceptional lifestyle.
