26 Johnson Drive is one of those homes that just feels right the moment you walk in. Built in 2003, this Colonial welcomes you with a bright two-story foyer, hardwood floors, and big windows that fill the house with natural light all day long. The main living room is warm and inviting with a fireplace, while a second living space—currently set up as a home office—gives you the flexibility everyone wants but rarely finds. The kitchen features stainless steel appliances and looks out to the backyard, making it easy to keep an eye on kids at play or enjoy casual get-togethers. A first-floor bedroom and powder room add real convenience, whether for guests, extended family, or work-from-home life. Upstairs, you'll find four additional bedrooms and two full baths, including a primary suite with cathedral ceilings, oversized windows, peaceful views, and a private en-suite bath that feels like a true retreat. The unfinished basement is a blank canvas—playroom, gym, storage, or future living space. Out front, a long porch stretches across the home, perfect for morning coffee or evening wind-downs. Out back, the cozy yard offers just the right amount of space for kids to play and adults to relax. Quiet setting, great layout, and a home that was clearly built to be lived in and loved.
