Step into history at 1146 North Avenue a beautiful 6-bedroom, 5-bath Colonial built in 1880, full of old-world charm and character you just can't recreate. Set on over half an acre, this home makes a statement with its circular driveway, wide front porch, and big front and back yards that give it a peaceful, private feel. Inside, you'll find original details that have been lovingly preserved. As you walk in to the grand foyer think tall 9-foot ceilings, detailed wood trim, and big French doors that open to the porch. The living and dining rooms are full of light and perfect for both quiet nights and family gatherings. There are two real wood-burning fireplaces one in the living room, and another in the cozy, finished basement. The kitchen has been updated enough to feel fresh but still fits the home's classic style, with plenty of room to cook and hang out. Upstairs, the primary bedroom feels like a retreat, with its own full bath and a separate dressing room. The other bedrooms are spacious and flexible perfect for guests, work-from-home setups, or extra hobbies. Including a separate maid's quarters that could be perfect for guests or live-in help. Storage is easy with large walk-in closets throughout. This home is close to everything Wykagyl Country Club, places of worship, local schools, shopping, restaurants, and more but it feels like a peaceful escape. This isn't just a home its a piece of New Rochelle history.
