Bathed in sunlight with Hudson River views from nearly every pane, 50 Gedney is a standout 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath corner lot in the heart of Nyack. Spanning four levels of architectural character, the home features vaulted ceilings, signature circular windows, and oversized picture windows. The sun-drenched main floor flows seamlessly from the kitchen and dining area to a living room with a balcony overlooking the Mario Cuomo Bridge, perfect for entertaining. The primary suite occupies its own private level, boasting an en-suite bath, walk-in closet and a second private balcony. For the modern professional, the ground floor offers a walk-out studio or office with a full bath. Additional highlights include an oversized two-car garage with separate entrance, central AC, and a basement with ample storage. Ideally situated in an area zoned for one- and two-family homes, this unique contemporary home is a rare opportunity to own a piece of the Nyack waterfront, conveniently located moments from village amenities and parks.
