Perched behind a stately stone wall on one-third acre in New Rochelle's coveted Bonnie Crest, this beautifully expanded Tudor blends timeless architectural elegance with thoughtful modern updates. From the moment you arrive, the sense of entering a private mini estate is undeniable. Rich in character and refined detail, the home offers exceptional space, classic craftsmanship, and a magnificent layout designed for both elegant entertaining and comfortable everyday living. An inviting entrance hall introduces the impressive interior, leading to a generous formal living room with a sun-filled solarium and a formal dining room highlighted by exquisite original leaded-glass windows—true architectural works of art. The updated chef's kitchen seamlessly combines old-world charm with modern convenience, featuring custom cabinetry, Viking appliances, a bright breakfast area, and an adjoining mudroom, creating a warm and welcoming space for gatherings and daily living. The first floor also includes a home office and powder room. The home offers five spacious bedrooms and 3.5 baths, including a luxurious primary suite with a deep walk-in closet and an updated spa bath featuring a steam shower and soaking tub. The finished lower level offers over 1,000 square feet with a separate entrance, providing exceptional flexibility for an incredible family room, guest suite, recreation space, studio, or additional home office. A laundry room, full bath, and hookups for a wet bar or summer kitchen add even more versatility to this expansive level. Outside, the lush, manicured grounds will bloom in the Spring with professionally landscaped perennials, offering privacy and future potential with room for a pool and pickleball court. The circular driveway framed by the original stone wall, along with a two-car garage and extended driveway, provides parking for up to 15 vehicles. Over the years, the home has been carefully rebuilt and renovated from top to bottom, preserving its historic charm while incorporating modern comfort, quality, and functionality. Ideally located near major highways, Metro-North trains, shopping, restaurants, schools, and houses of worship, this extraordinary property offers a seamless blend of historic sophistication and modern convenience with an easy commute to New York City.
