Welcome to 433 Elm Street, a recently refreshed home offering a comfortable layout and a great foundation for the next owner to make their own. The main level features an open living and dining area with a wood-burning fireplace and hardwood floors, creating a warm and functional space for everyday living. The eat-in kitchen includes newer stainless-steel appliances, classic subway tile, and sliding doors that lead to a large deck overlooking a spacious, flat backyard—ideal for gatherings or future outdoor enhancements. Two bedrooms on the main level provide ample closet space and share a full bath finished with marble tile. The upper level offers a flexible bonus area with a half bath, perfect for a home office, guest space, or playroom offering even more versatility once completed. The basement includes laundry and the additional storage. A paved driveway and plentiful street parking add to the home's convenience. Located in vibrant Port Chester, you're close to the village's lively downtown, shopping, dining, and entertainment options, as well as Metro-North and major highways. 433 Elm Street is move-in ready with room to grow—an ideal opportunity for buyers looking to add their own style and updates over time.
