Step onto the front porch of this special home, where charm and warmth greet you at every turn. Imagine sipping your morning coffee or welcoming friends to this inviting space. Inside the home is thoughtfully designed with a light-filled interior that exudes both elegance and functionality. 5 bedrooms, 2.2 baths and multiple office spaces, offers unmatched flexibility—whether you need space for yourselves, home office(s), or a dedicated guest suite. Expansive windows bathe the rooms in natural light. The updated eat-in kitchen is appointed with sleek countertops, generous cabinetry, and premium stainless-steel appliances, including a stunning 6 burner cooktop—ideal for everything from quiet meals to hosting gatherings. Views of the Long Island Sound from the second floor wrap around sunroom will quickly become the favorite gathering spot. The long, gated driveway isn't just practical— it's your own playground for fun, whether it's bikes or scooters, a casual basketball game, or simply enjoying the extra room to roam. A two-car detached garage and tons of storage in the basement, plus laundry, rounds out the rental. Nestled near Rye Town Park and Beach and a stone's throw away from the Long Island Sound, this home places you right in the heart of relaxation and recreation. Stroll to the beach, enjoy the park's green spaces, or take in the coastal charm that makes this area so special. 33 Redfield is just moments from Rye's vibrant downtown, top-rated schools, Rye Arts Center, Rye YMCA, and train station—offering an effortless 40 minute commute into Manhattan.
