We do not see a lot of staggered Tudors, but the home at 229 North Regent street is one. The house exhibits many wonderful architectural features: decorative archways, beautiful radiator covers, French doors, and hardwood flooring. The sellers also have an inspiring eclectic decorating style that draws you right into the comfort of this home. Additional features include, a walk-up attic, a large fenced back yard, a large deck and patio located off a windowed sunroom, a two-car tandem garage plus driveway parking, easy access to the garage from inside the house, an updated bathroom, and a fireplace in the living room with a decorative surround and built-in bookcases. The kitchen really is a hub with access to every room on the first floor. There are approximately 8'6" ceilings on the main level, which offer a nice openness to the whole house. Plus, there are sidewalks in this location.
