Welcome to this striking Georgian Colonial with exceptional curb appeal, tucked at the end of a coveted Rye cul-de-sac and set on .61 acres of beautifully private, park-like property. Expansive living space spans four levels, thoughtfully designed for everyday living and effortless entertaining. A dramatic double-height entry with sweeping curved walls and an open stair landing creates an impressive arrival and sets the tone for the home's architectural presence. The exceptionally well-appointed eat-in kitchen features high-end appliances, including double Wolf ovens, a built-in Miele coffee system, warming drawer, ice machine, beverage fridge, refrigerator drawers, and double dishwashers. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the family room, highlighted by an oversized built-in media wall. Formal living and dining rooms provide elegant entertaining spaces, while a window-lined office offers an ideal work-from-home setup. French doors span the rear of the home, opening to an expansive upper deck that extends the living space outdoors. The deck and lower patio overlook a serene, tree-lined backdrop bordering protected land, offering exceptional privacy and a peaceful natural setting. Three fireplaces—located in the living room, family room, and primary suite—add warmth and character throughout the home. The second level features a luxurious primary suite with fireplace, private balcony, custom-fitted walk-in closet, and spa-like bath with double sinks, soaking tub, and separate shower. Two additional bedrooms share a bath, complemented by a fourth en-suite bedroom and a conveniently located laundry room. A walk-up attic provides additional finished space, ideal for a recreation room or flexible use, along with an office and generous storage. The nearly all at-grade lower level is bright and inviting, with abundant natural light from multiple windows and French doors that open directly to the patio and backyard. This level offers exceptional versatility with a spacious recreation room, additional bedroom, office or exercise space, full bath, wet bar, mudroom area, wine cellar, abundant storage, and access to the attached three-car garage, ideal for multi-generational living or extended guest space. Ideally located just minutes from the train, steps from Rye Golf & Pool, and within walking distance to the Marshlands Conservancy, this exceptional home offers a rare combination of scale, privacy, and convenience in one of Rye's most sought-after settings.
