138 Oakland Beach is one of those homes that just feels special the second you walk in. It's bright, open, beautifully designed, and full of thoughtful details that make everyday living feel easy and elevated. The heart of the home is the stunning kitchen and family room, which opens right out to the terrace and side yard. With a large island, handmade cabinetry, Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances, and a butler's pantry, this space is made for everyday living and easy entertaining. Hardwood floors, high ceilings, Moroccan-style archways, and tall Marvin windows add so much character and warmth. The layout offers 3,742 square feet of thoughtfully designed space, including a crisp white living room with fireplace, a lovely dining room, and a calm neutral office or 5th bedroom. Upstairs, you'll find four bedrooms and three full bathrooms, including a peaceful primary suite with a tray ceiling, limestone ensuite bath, and two walk-in closets. Outside, the sprawling side yard offers wonderful space to relax, entertain, and enjoy the lawn and patio, all while abutting beautiful Hix Park. Complete with a 1-car garage and located approximately 1/2 mile from the beach, pool, Harrison train, and schools, this home blends style, comfort, and everyday convenience.
