Located in one of Rye's most desirable neighborhoods, this enchanting 1923 residence tells a story few homes can match. Known locally as one of the "three sisters", the house was built by a devoted father for one of his three daughters. The property carries a legacy of family, craftsmanship, and enduring charm. Set on beautifully maintained grounds featuring native plantings, the home is graced by one of the area's oldest living landmarks—an original northern red oak tree dating back to c. 1776—offering a rare and tangible connection to history right in your own backyard. Inside this true 5 bedroom, 3.1 bath center hall colonial, timeless architectural details blend seamlessly with modern comforts, creating a warm and inviting space. The generous chef's kitchen features custom Rutt cabinetry, Wolf and Sub Zero appliances, large center island and a gracious eat-in area flanked by a large bay window allowing you to enjoy the natural light and wonders of nature from your kitchen table; direct access to the back deck and flagstone patio perfect for entertaining, enjoying your morning coffee or evening cocktail to nature's soundtrack. The home features a first floor study and den/playroom. Just moments from Long Island Sound beach, top-rated schools, and Rye's vibrant downtown, this location offers both convenience and coastal lifestyle. A truly special offering ~ where history, heart, and home come together. xo....this one feeds your soul :)
