Welcome to 407 North Midland Avenue, a beautifully updated Arts and Crafts inspired home nestled in the heart of the beloved village of Upper Nyack. Set on a stunning .36 acre flat and fully fenced lot, the curb appeal is immediate and undeniable with lush professional landscaping, flowering trees, and an attached two car garage. Inside, gleaming hardwood floors, an open concept layout, a wood burning brick fireplace, and a sun drenched kitchen with soaring cathedral ceilings, dual skylights, granite countertops, and a center island create a home that is as warm and welcoming as it is impressive. French doors off the kitchen and dining room open seamlessly to the deck and backyard, perfect for entertaining all year long. The first floor primary suite is a true retreat featuring hardwood floors and a beautifully renovated en suite bath with a deep soaking tub, marble glass enclosed shower, custom dark vanity with marble countertops, and a designer walk in closet. Upstairs the flexible layout offers two generous bedrooms, a full bath, and a wonderful loft area that works beautifully as a sitting room, reading nook, or home office, the kind of space that adapts perfectly to whatever your life needs. The fully finished basement is where this home truly sets itself apart. Versatile, stylish, and incredibly well designed, make it your dream. Whether you envision a home theater, gym, game room, wine lounge, or all of the above, the space is ready for it. Featuring wood beams, ambient LED lighting, a spacious media room, dedicated home gym, game room, card room with barn door, and a laundry room with GE front loading washer and dryer. Direct garage access adds the ultimate everyday convenience. Outside the private backyard is a rare and special find, a sprawling flat fenced lawn, large deck, beautiful paver patio, and mature trees surrounding the property on all sides. Solar panels add energy efficiency that buyers today are actively seeking. Upper Nyack is one of the most sought after villages in all of Rockland County, offering the perfect blend of small town charm, natural beauty, and community. Walk to Upper Nyack Elementary, Hook Mountain State Park, and Nyack Beach State Park. Enjoy the vibrant restaurants, shops, and waterfront of downtown Nyack just minutes away. For buyers who want space, character, location, and a home that has been truly loved and thoughtfully updated from top to bottom, 407 North Midland Avenue is the one. Do not miss it.
