Timeless charm and modern updates come together beautifully in this sun-drenched 1920's Colonial located in the heart of Rye. Rich in character with original moldings, exposed architectural details, and hardwood floors throughout, this inviting home offers exceptional living space, abundant natural light, and a seamless layout for today's lifestyle. The modern eat-in kitchen features peninsula seating, stainless steel appliances, custom cabinetry, and opens directly to the adjacent family room, creating the perfect setting for everyday living and entertaining. The expansive living room and dining room are centered around a stunning stone fireplace, the focal point of the home, while oversized windows flood the space with sunlight. A bright sunroom/playroom with door to the patio and beautifully landscaped yard, along with a mudroom and powder room, complete the first floor. The second level offers a spacious primary suite with walk-in closet and ensuite bath, two additional bedrooms, and an updated hall bath. Stairs lead to a large attic offering exceptional storage, with additional storage space available in the basement. Freshly painted inside and out with numerous updates throughout, this move-in ready home combines warmth, charm, and convenience. Ideally located within walking distance to Award-Winning Osborn School, downtown Rye, restaurants, shops, parks, beaches, and Rye Town Park and Beach, this special home offers the very best of Rye living.
