This effortlessly cool mid-century modern ranch is the perfect blend of iconic design, comfort, and livability. Bathed in soft southeast light, the open-concept floor plan feels airy and inviting, with rich hardwood floors flowing throughout the main living spaces. At the heart of the home, a fireplace anchors the living area, while the thoughtfully designed kitchen offers abundant cabinetry, expansive counter space, a pantry, and a specially crafted pull-out spice rack—ideal for both everyday living and serious cooking. A spectacular family room addition wrapped in floor-to-ceiling windows captures seasonal river views and opens to two private decks, creating a seamless connection to nature and the outdoors. The generously proportioned rooms provide a sense of ease and flexibility, including a serene primary suite with excellent closet space and a private ensuite bath. Storage is plentiful throughout the home, and the attached two-car garage adds everyday convenience. The partially finished lower level offers bonus space for a media room, gym, studio, or home office. Outside, the spacious backyard provides the perfect setting for entertaining, gardening, or simply unwinding. Filled with natural light and unmistakable mid-century character, this home has an authentic, laid-back vibe that feels both stylish and timeless. Best of all, this home is just a pleasant level walk to the Village of Nyack where you will find cafes, restaurants, boutiques and music venues and access to to the Hudson River waterfront. Only 30 miles to Midtown Manhattan , this is the perfect balance of laid back Rivertown living and easy access to the city. Stylish, and filled with an unmistakable mid-century vibe, this home embodies the artistic energy that makes Nyack so special.
