A rare opportunity to own one of Rye's most treasured historic homes, masterfully restored to honor its architectural heritage while embracing fresh modern living. Welcome to this private corner sanctuary with a magnificent wraparound porch set amidst spectacular English country gardens. To live in this cherished tree-lined hamlet is to wake each day to quiet birdsong, a world away from it all, yet just a stroll to schools, the beach, park, town and train. A recognized landmark home, every inch of this iconic 1908 Foursquare has been meticulously preserved to the highest standard. Beautifully laid out over three floors plus a lower-level, you'll find exquisite refurbished Fir floors, custom-crafted wooden Lepage picture windows, original detailed solid wood doors and millwork. Elegant French doors open to the wraparound porch and patio, inviting you to entertain outside in every season. Graciously proportioned rooms are connected for effortless living, while original pocket doors offer privacy when desired - from the Great Room with sunlit breakfast area into the chef's kitchen, and the formal living room into the Old Parlor or dining room. This home truly has it all, 5 glorious bedrooms including the primary with spa-like ensuite, 3 additional full baths and 2 powder rooms, an outfitted mudroom leading out to the custom-designed 2-car garage, a fabulous office or au-pair suite and lower-level storage and home gym. 32 Lynden is unlike any other and will be cherished for generations to come!
