Welcome to 3 Soundview Street, a move-in ready split-level home ideally situated on a prominent corner lot in the sought-after Sutton Manor neighborhood of New Rochelle. This well-maintained residence combines immediate comfort with exceptional long-term potential. The home features 3 bedrooms, 2 full bathrooms, a bright and functional layout, and numerous upgrades that make it ready for its next owner. Beautifully manicured landscaping, mature privacy hedges, and a spacious fenced yard create an inviting outdoor setting for entertaining, gardening, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. One of this property's standout features is its oversized corner lot, providing abundant yard space and offering potential future expansion opportunities. Buyers looking to maximize the property's value may wish to explore the possibility of increasing the home's footprint or adding additional improvements, subject to local zoning, approvals, and Floor Area Ratio (FAR) requirements. (Buyers should consult with the City of New Rochelle regarding development possibilities.) Conveniently located just moments from Pelham Road, the property offers easy access to downtown New Rochelle, Metro-North transportation, restaurants, shopping, waterfront parks, marinas, and beaches, while remaining nestled within one of the city's most desirable residential neighborhoods. Located within the New Rochelle City School District, the home is zoned for Trinity Elementary School, Isaac E. Young Middle School, and New Rochelle High School. Whether you're searching for a turnkey home, a property with room to grow, or an opportunity in one of New Rochelle's most established neighborhoods, 3 Soundview Street offers a rare combination of location, lifestyle, and future potential.
