Discover timeless elegance in this charming Tudor-style home, characterized by its distinctive stucco and clinker brick exterior. The inviting entry foyer, complete with two generous closets, leads you into a sunken living room. This warm, heart-of-the-home space features a gas fireplace, a cozy reading nook, and coffered ceilings. French doors open from the living room into a sunroom. The main floor also includes a large formal dining room and an eat-in kitchen that functions beautifully for modern living. The kitchen is well-appointed with granite countertops, tile flooring, a gas range, a two-drawer dishwasher, and a refrigerator. A convenient pantry, mudroom area, and a half bath located off the kitchen add to the home's practicality. Upstairs, the second floor hosts a spacious king-sized primary bedroom featuring an ensuite bath, a ceiling fan, and generous closets. Three additional bedrooms, all with ample closet space, and a classic hall bath with a tub complete this level. The third floor offers an extra room ideal for a private office or creative retreat and a bedroom. A brick patio off the kitchen offers plenty of space for grilling and entertaining. It overlooks a fully fenced and beautifully planted backyard. The oversized detached two-car garage offers plenty of storage. Mini-splits provide efficient cooling throughout the home.
