Welcome to modern sophistication in New City. Wrapped in a striking stone exterior, this reimagined Colonial balances grandeur with clean design. An impressive double-door entrance leads into a light-filled foyer then onto a spacious open-concept layout perfect for everyday living or hosting special occasions. At the core of the main level sits a spectacular kitchen with oversized center island, all renovated in 2020. Crafted for the culinary enthusiast, it features premium grade appliances, a dedicated wine and beverage refrigerator, an additional wall oven, and abundant cabinetry. The space flows effortlessly into the den anchored by a gas fireplace, alongside refined formal living and dining spaces. A dedicated main-floor suite with a full bath offers complete flexibility as a private home office or multi-generational guest quarters. Upstairs, the primary retreat functions as its own haven, complete with a private sitting room, expansive walk-in closet, and a spa-caliber bath featuring double sinks and a separate vanity area. Generously sized bedrooms offer complete comfort for all, complemented by a full bathroom and cedar closet in the upper hall. For an added bonus, a full, unfinished lower level adds many possibilities for additional space and uses. Beyond the interior, step outside to an expansive, tree-lined backyard framed by mature greenery, offering absolute privacy for outdoor entertaining or quiet relaxation. Ideally positioned in the Clarkstown School District, this completely turn-key residence combines elegance with major peace-of-mind updates, including a new roof (2021), new furnace (2022), air conditioning and hot water heater (2019), new exterior doors and glass slider (2021) and replacement windows throughout.
