Step inside to a bright and welcoming interior filled with natural light and timeless details. The main level offers a wonderful flow for both everyday living and entertaining, with a generously sized living room, formal dining room, kitchen, and powder room. The kitchen leads naturally into the dining room, where French doors open directly onto the Trex deck and expansive backyard—creating a seamless transition from indoor to outdoor living and the perfect setting for entertaining family and friends. The backyard is truly an extension of the home, with room for a trampoline, swing set, outdoor games, and even the opportunity to create an additional patio or entertaining area. Surrounded by mature trees, there is an abundance of space to play, gather, garden, and enjoy the outdoors. Upstairs, all four bedrooms are generously sized, including a spacious primary bedroom with a walk-in closet. A full bathroom completes the second floor. The possibilities continue beyond the two main living levels. The full attic offers tremendous additional space and the potential to create a third floor, while the lower level provides an entirely separate flexible space with endless possibilities—a playroom, recreation room, home office, gym, or additional gathering area. The lower level also provides direct access to the attached garage. Two-zone heating and cooling, central air, and a whole-house electric generator provide year-round comfort and added peace of mind. From mornings at home to afternoons in the expansive backyard, dinners on the deck, and the convenience of having schools, parks, town, the waterfront, shops, restaurants, and Metro-North just minutes away, 213 Florence Street offers the space and setting to create a home and lifestyle all your own in Rye Neck.
