Victorian soul. Modern sensibility. Piermont at your doorstep. Circa 1896 and brilliantly reimagined by a top local architect, this artfully renovated Victorian strikes that elusive balance between historic character and effortless modern living. An open, beautifully functional floor plan, exceptional natural light, and captivating Hudson River views set the tone. Original architectural details have been lovingly restored, from transom windows and substantial trim work to charming built-ins and a wood-burning fireplace. Four bedrooms include an ensuite primary, while the reimagined, river-facing sunroom is a light-filled retreat you'll never want to leave. The well-appointed kitchen opens directly to a lush, maturely landscaped backyard, where a beautiful patio and inviting lawn create the perfect setting for everything from morning coffee to dinner under the stars. Interesting rooflines and walls of windows bring architectural drama -flooding the interiors with natural light and creating a seamless connection to the surrounding landscape. Even the laundry/mudroom get the design treatment—smart, practical, and seriously attractive. The location is just as good as the house. An easy flat stroll into the Village of Piermont for coffee, galleries , great restaurants and the unmistakable energy that Piermont has. This home has history, a fresh point of view and a lifestyle thats hard to match. South Orangetown schools. Only 25 miles to NYC.
