Don't miss this first-time-on-the-market brick beauty in Rye Neck Schools, built in 1930 and thoughtfully maintained. This well-built home offers an excellent, functional floor plan, beginning with a welcoming entry that opens to a living room with a wood-burning fireplace, followed by a formal dining room and a bright den with built-in shelves and hardwood flooring beneath the carpet. The eat-in kitchen features Plain & Fancy solid wood cabinetry with undercounter LED lighting, granite countertops, subway tile, Sub-Zero refrigerator, a stainless-steel Franke sink, high-end stainless-steel appliances, including a Viking stove and microwave and Miele dishwasher. Off the kitchen are a pantry, convenient laundry room, and full bathroom with a stall shower. The kitchen also opens to a spacious screened-in porch—an inviting, bug-free space to read, relax, and enjoy the outdoors. Upstairs, the second floor includes three bedrooms and a hall bathroom, including a generously sized primary bedroom that comfortably accommodates a king-sized bed. The lower level offers a legal walk-out home office, recreation room, and half bathroom. Outside, the private, level backyard features mature plantings, and recent updates include a 2022 Timberline roof with a 50 year, transferable warranty and new gutters and leaders. Move-in ready and full of charm, this home is ready to welcome its next owners.
