In the sought-after Highlands neighborhood, this sun-filled, meticulously remodeled 1937 Colonial pairs classic character with exceptional quality and true move-in ease. It is set on a beautifully landscaped, quarter-acre corner property and has a large and welcoming bluestone front porch. Meticulous attention to detail is evident throughout, with refinished hardwood floors, custom millwork and beadboard wainscoting, quality hardware, and elegant LED lighting. The gracious living room is anchored by a Rumford wood-burning fireplace. French doors open to a charming sunroom or study. The beautifully renovated kitchen features floor-to-ceiling white custom cabinetry, Carrara marble countertops and Greek marble subway style wall accents, stainless Wolf appliances including cooktop, wall oven and built-in microwave, Shaws of England porcelain farm sink and a comfortable breakfast bar. A large bay window brings natural light into the space and offers pretty views outside. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, including a private primary suite with a high, vaulted wainscoted ceiling, two walk-in closets and primary bathroom with shower. A fourth bedroom on the main level offers flexibility for guests or a home office. The serene color palette, natural sunlight and carefully selected finishes add to the home's warm and inviting character. Additional amenities include central air, gas heat, professional landscaping, irrigation system, and an attached garage. Conveniently located close to schools, shops and restaurants and just minutes from Metro-North train to New York City, this beautifully maintained Highlands home offers character, quality and turnkey living in a prime location.
