Welcome to quiet, desirable Gedney Manor, where this unusually spacious Expanded Ranch offers the kind of flexibility that can serve you beautifully through many stages of life. One of the larger homes in the neighborhood, its thoughtful layout is especially well suited to multigenerational living, with primary suites on both the first and second floors and a ramp providing easy access to the front entrance. The expanded kitchen and dining room create generous gathering spaces, while the enclosed rear porch has become a relaxing spa room—a private retreat just steps from the main living areas. Step from the kitchen onto the deck, where an existing gas line makes outdoor grilling easy. Hardwood floors lie beneath the carpeting throughout the first floor, ready to be enjoyed again whenever you choose. Outside, the setting is every bit as appealing. Beverly Road has the peaceful, comfortable neighborhood feel that is increasingly hard to find—neighbors walking with dogs and strollers, riding bikes and shooting hoops in the street. The property backs directly to White Plains' Jack Harrington Greenway, adding a wonderful sense of openness and greenery behind the home. Yet this tranquil setting is remarkably convenient: multiple houses of worship are within walking distance, as are neighborhood shops and Bee-Line bus service, with easy connections to Metro-North and express trains reaching Manhattan in approximately 35 minutes. This is a home that offers room to gather, room to spread out, room for different generations to live comfortably—and a location that makes everyday life easier. In Gedney Manor, with the Greenway at your back and so much of White Plains within easy reach, it really does come down to location, location, location. Being sold "As-Is"
