Tucked away on a quiet private dead-end street shared by just a few homes, this beautiful move-in-ready Rye residence offers an exceptional combination of privacy and convenience, within walking distance of the train and elementary school. The home lives remarkably large, with an open, flexible layout designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The main level features an updated open kitchen and dining area, a generous living room, three bedrooms, two renovated baths, and a wonderful three-season recreation room that becomes an integral part of the home for much of the year. The bright and airy walkout lower level features a large family room opening through glass doors to the patio and backyard, plus two additional bedrooms and another renovated full bath, ideal for extended-stay guests, an au pair, home offices or recreation. The current owners have extensively improved the home, including an updated kitchen with all-new appliances, all renovated bathrooms, new central air and heating systems, and major utilities replacement within the past five years. The result is a truly turnkey home designed for carefree living. Beyond the large, level backyard, the property is directly adjacent to an extraordinary expanse of neighboring open grass lawn owned by the City of Rye, creating a wonderful sense of openness and space. Beautifully updated, exceptionally functional and quietly tucked away while still close to everything, this is a home that offers so much.
