Welcome to 15 Waldron Avenue, a beautifully finished seven-bedroom, five-full-bath residence offering an extraordinary amount of space, flexibility & modern comfort in the heart of Nyack just 40 minutes from NYC. Designed for the way people live today, this expansive home easily accommodates everything from everyday family life to multigenerational living, extended stays, working from home & entertaining on a larger scale. Spanning multiple levels, the layout is remarkably versatile, with generous bedrooms, multiple gathering spaces & the ability to create separation when desired. A first-floor bedroom & full bath provide an ideal setup for guests, extended family or anyone looking for convenient single-level living. Upstairs, additional bedrooms offer plenty of room for family, home offices, nurseries or dedicated hobby spaces. The fully finished lower level adds another dimension to the home, complete with its own private entrance, additional bedroom & full bath. Use it as a private guest suite, home office, gym, playroom, media room or additional living space—the flexibility is there to evolve along with your needs. Whether you need room for a large household today or simply want the freedom to spread out, the home offers options rarely found in one property. At the center of it all is a renovated kitchen with stainless steel appliances, complemented by beautifully finished bathrooms & comfortable living spaces throughout. Outside, two large driveways provide abundant off-street parking—an especially valuable feature for a home designed to welcome family & friends. And then there is Nyack itself. Set along the western banks of the Hudson River, this vibrant Rivertown is known for its lively downtown, independent shops, restaurants, cafes, galleries & strong sense of community. Spend weekends walking along the Hudson, exploring nearby riverfront parks & trails, grabbing dinner downtown or enjoying everything the lower Hudson Valley has to offer. The Palisades Center, major highways & everyday conveniences are all just minutes away. For commuters, access to New York City is equally convenient. The Tarrytown Metro-North station is located just across the Hudson, providing direct train service into Manhattan, while nearby transportation connections make getting between Nyack & Tarrytown easy. With New York City approximately 35 minutes away by car, the home offers a compelling balance of suburban space, Rivertown lifestyle & proximity to the city. Seven bedrooms. Five full baths. Multiple living spaces & room for nearly every chapter of life. Whether filled with family, friends, guests—or simply the luxury of having space to call your own—15 Waldron Avenue is a home designed to accommodate more.
