A Private Westchester Retreat with Golf Course Views! Set on nearly one acre with mature trees and views of the golf course behind the property, this four-bedroom, three-bath White Plains residence offers a distinctive setting with Westchester's conveniences close at hand. A broad driveway leads to the home and attached two-car garage, creating a welcoming arrival. Inside, the main level is designed for comfortable routines and relaxed entertaining. The living room and separate dining room provide distinct spaces for gathering, while the eat-in kitchen offers a natural setting for morning coffee and casual meals. In the family room, a fireplace adds warmth and atmosphere on cooler evenings. An enclosed rear porch provides year-round flexibility for reading, relaxing or working from home. A main level primary bedroom offers convenience, while three additional bedrooms upstairs, including two generously sized rooms provide options for guests, a home office or creative pursuits. The layout offers room to spread out while maintaining a connected feel. Outside, the generous grounds and golf course views create an appealing backdrop. Downtown White Plains is within reach for dining, shopping and daily essentials, with Metro-North service and major roadways providing access throughout Westchester and beyond. Whether establishing a Westchester home or renting while planning your next move, 10 North Lake Circle offers space, versatility and a memorable setting. The pool is currently unavailable; the owner anticipates readiness for the 2027 swimming season, subject to completion and confirmation. Virtually landscaped photographs illustrate proposed improvements and do not depict current conditions.
