Step into this charming three-bedroom, two-bath Cape Cod where every corner feels like home. The heart of this house is the stunning, renovated eat-in kitchen, which flows seamlessly into a magnificent great room. With its soaring vaulted ceilings, Palladian window, and skylights, this sun-drenched space is bright and airy. The large window offers a picturesque view of the beautifully maintained yard. The main level also features a living room that can easily transition into a dining area, depending on your needs. Oak hardwood floors add warmth and style, throughout the house. The deck provides the perfect setting for summer gatherings and BBQ's. The lower level includes a finished recreation room, laundry area, and ample storage. The interior of house was completely painted and the driveway was resurfaced (10/2026). Complete with a one-car garage, lawn sprinkler system, alarm, house generator and a prime location near local shopping, parks, and the train, this home perfectly balances comfort and convenience. It truly has it all!
