A true gem in the historic Battle Hill neighborhood of White Plains where everything, including Metro North Express Train, shopping, parks and highways are right at your fingertips! Located at the very end of a quiet, tree lined dead end street, 14 Edna beckons you inside to explore how seamlessly this 1920's Colonial charmer blends with all of today's modern amenities and the thoughtful updates throughout this home. A very large Living Room with Fireplace (or use part of the Living Room as a den or playroom), a formal Dining Room, a renovated Kitchen with white cabinets, new stainless appliances, bar area and access to the wraparound deck and truly private, lush, fenced in backyard. The second floor boasts 3 Bedrooms (one with walk up stairs to 3rd floor/attic Bonus Space not included in overall square footage) and a spa-like renovated Bathroom with a double vanity. Freshly painted, new light fixtures, new window and patio. Basement has endless possibilities and has also been freshly painted and resealed as well as the garage. New chimney liner, attic and basement insulation, exterior walls, wrought iron front railing and much more! Room for additional bathroom and/or whole house addition!
